

VEGAS vegfest

On Saturday April 9th, 2016, CWI produced the first-ever Vegas VegFest. Though what started as a sunny day quickly turned into a freak desert hail and rainstorm, the enthusiasm for VegFest was so great that despite being pelted with inch-wide hail, many attendees didn't even budge from the food lines! If there is one thing we learned, it's that the passion for plant-based, cruelty-free eating is growing and it is hungry!!

We are grateful to Paul Shapiro, the Vegan Bros, Andy Mars, Chef Mayra, and our other fabulous speakers. We also send our congratulations to second-grader Audrey Johnson for winning the first-ever Vegas VegFest Animal Hero award!
